Dedication

To those who serve us, for their gallant sacrifices and devotion to duty, we dedicate our Torch, in grateful appreciation for their protection of all that we cherish. Along with our Torch we dedicate ourselves, our strength, our wisdom and all our love. We will make the future equal to their valor.

LOYALTIES

Let us keep splendid loyalties,
For we are falling prey to lesser things.
What use are breath and strength if we no longer feel
The thrill of battle for some holy cause
Or hear high morning bugles calling us away?
Let brave hearts dare to break the truce with things
Ere we have lost our ancient heritage.
Are we to gain a world to lose our souls,
Souls which can keep faith until death
And die, triumphant, in some crimson dawn?

Nay, we must keep faith with the unnumbered brave
Who pushed aside horizons, that we might reach
The better things: We cannot rest until
We have put courage once more on her throne;
For Honor clamors for her heritage,
And Right still claims a kingdom of its own.

Reverie: June 23, 1943

GRADUATION day, the day we have dreamed of for four years (or more), has come at last. Yes, for four years we have watched and envied others as they graduated; now it is our turn. As we march up to receive our diplomas from Mr. Wilmot, our thoughts wander back to September, 1939.

We were freshmen then, lowly insignificant freshmen, who were gullible enough to believe anything the seniors told us. We could always be counted upon to go up the down stairway. As freshmen we soon learned where room 109 was and who Miss Kraemer and Mr. Fast were. As a class, we started to get under way. Our advisers, Miss Wilbor and Mr. Vanderhoof, called a meeting. They told us what would be expected of us in future years at school. Not only were their talks encouraging, but they had united us as a class for the first time.

Sophomores! What a wonderful feeling, even though the seniors called us "saps." Some of us began to act sophisticated, Ahem! even to the extent of going to some of the dances which the seniors practically forced us to attend. All was going along wonderfully. I guess too wonderfully, because a sad thing happened to us. Due to other duties Miss Wilbor could not continue as our adviser and Miss Cleary accepted the position.

Well, by now we were used to the old routine of classes and homework. What's homework, you ask? Well, that's the stuff you do between radio programs.

Another vacation came and went and we were Juniors. Imagine, upper-classmen! Now we really began to get interested in school and class activities. We had our own dances and gave a play, "Don't Keep Him Waiting," which was a huge success. Great credit should be given to the entire cast for an excellent performance, to Miss Kartluke for her able assistance in coaching, and, lest we forget, to Eleanor Tewes and Etta Rubin for their zeal in assembling the properties which contributed much to the enjoyment of the play.

We had meetings and the most important thing of all was that we elected class officers for the first time. After much campaigning, the ballot was taken and our officers were:

President	ANTHONY D'ALESSIO
Vice-President	JOSEPHINE STRELECKI
Secretary	RUTH THOMPSON
Treasurer	HENRY SATZGER
Sergeants-at-Arms	DONALD CHIAPPETTI, HERBERT KREMP

Many of us joined various clubs and school teams, too. The same old routine was boring, so some of us took to visiting the park, drug store, or neighborhood theatre for a change of atmosphere. Really Miss Kraemer's office is very comfortable, once you get used to it. While there we dreamed of the future, and our Senior year.

September, 1942, at last arrived and we were SENIORS!!! Could it be possible, we asked. It was.

Everything was going very smoothly, when suddenly once again we lost another adviser. This time it was Mr. Vanderhoof. He had been a wonderful adviser for three years, working very hard for us. Mr. Di Nardo very kindly stepped into Mr. Vanderhoof's place, and did a wonderful job, too.

Well, at last we were settled, and the good things really began to happen. First came our Senior Recognition (commonly known as Senior "Rec"). What a day! The girls were beautiful in their pretty dresses and tearose corsages, the boys handsome in their new suits and boutonnieres. All the celebrating! From morn till night! And why not, we were now officially Seniors.

No sooner had the effect of the "Rec" worn off, than before our eyes loomed the Senior Promenade ("Prom" to you). Our Prom was a novel one. Never before in the history of East Side was there such a one as ours. It was a Victory Prom. We economized on everything, even time, which was the most important factor. It was held from six-thirty until nine o'clock. What did it matter to us? This is war and as patriotic citizens, we were only too glad to change our hours. The Gym itself was beautiful. We had an immense Christmas tree, snow all around, and everything else that goes with Christmas, even Santa Claus. Strutting around in their first (in most cases) tuxedos were our handsome boys, and the girls in their lovely gowns rivaled this grandeur with their beauty. All and all it really was perfect.

Of course, we had class elections again. The victors this time were:

President	ANTHONY D'ALESSIO
Vice-President	ELIZABETH GARBARINI
Secretary	RUTH THOMPSON
Treasurer	HARRY ROSEN
Sergeants-at-Arms	FRED BORTNICK, STEVE KAPSKY

There were only three things ahead of us now, the election of our graduating officers, our Torch, and graduation.

The campaigning over, the ballot taken, we found that we had made very wise decisions when we elected the following 12A officers:

President	EDWARD McGRATH
Vice-President	JOSEPHINE STRELECKI
Secretary	ANNE KELLY
Treasurer	ROBERT LUTZ
Sergeants-at-Arms	GEORGE MARTIN, FRED BORTNICK

Every one worked hard to get the Torch published. Pictures were taken, articles written, advertisements sold, until it was finally completed and it certainly is one of the best ever produced by any graduating class.

Now Mr. Wilmot is handing us our diploma and is shaking our hand. Our hearts swell and our eyes brim with tears, for we are no longer students of East Side High School. Oh, if only we could turn back the clock and live these four happy years over again. If only the boys who have left our class to fight in our Army, Navy, and Marine Corps could be with us at this time, for they too have looked forward to graduation day. There is one consolation, however, victory is near and we all shall be together once again. In the meantime, let us pray that God will keep our boys and girls who are in the service, and those who will be going, in good health and insure their safe return.

STRICKEN LINER CAPSIZES

By JOHN GUBERNAT

CRACK LINER GOES DOWN IN TEN MINUTES. FIRST SURVIVORS LISTED

Inside of ten minutes, after striking a half submerged derelict, the palatial liner "America" split its seams and was on the way to the bottom.

Captain John Ragazine, first to leave the sinking ship, had no comment to make to A.P. reporter John Piatek. Dr. Alex Kaligo administered first aid to the known survivors who are as follows:

"Ernest J." Magersky—Novelist, Ted Muller—Congressman from New Jersey.

Milton Bienick—Wealthy mortician.

Helen Jankowski—Head Librarian of the Newark Public Library.

Harry Rosen—Wizard of Wall Street.

Franklin Hastings—Vice President of Westinghouse.

Mary Morsewich—Fashionable milliner.

Jerry Lepore—Surrealist painter.

J. Val Nagy—Noted art critic.

Charles Vanyo—Chief engineer in the construction of Pebble Dam.

Ruth Thompson—R.N.

June Klena—Popular designer.

Frances Kordys—Popular Park Ave. Hostess.

Evelyn Eberle—Private detective.

Jean Inguaggiato—Well known dietician.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Spadone of East Orange, N. J.

Eleanor Tewes—Collector of rare antiques.

Elizabeth Garbarini—Senator from New Jersey.

Helen Wojcik—Head baker at N.B.C.

Henrietta Tomaszewski—World famous model.

Norma Schneider—Hollywood scenario writer.

Elivera Cunha—Editor of the monthly publication "A Women's World."

Dorothy Bielecki—Love-lorn editor of "A Women's World."

Antoinette Dobos—Society editor of "A Women's World."

Victoria Cierpial—Fiancee of naval officer Phil D'Amore.

Rosanne Klug—Retired jitterbug champion of U.S.

Dorothy Skorynko—Head hostess of the Stage Door Canteen.

Margaret Paoella—Professor of German.

THE ARMED FORCES REPORT

By JOHN SABO

Col. Charles Carracino, who had forty-five planes to his credit in the last war has been promoted to Brig. General.

John Toto, known among navy personnel as the Ten Year Wonder became an Ensign last week.

Lieut. Commander James Gomes has just returned from successful maneuvers in which the DiCosimo radio wave has shown itself to be a deadly weapon of destruction.

Mildred Bernovich, Eileen Moran and Ida Trimarco are trying to get used to civilian life after six years in the WAVES.

Jean Baiocco, Helen Naporano and Joanne Kamyk have just been honorably discharged from the WAACS.

Anne Kelly, the new commander of the WAAFS, has the distinction of being the only woman to receive the Congressional Medal of Honor. Her lieutenants Sonia Suhostovsky, Aileen Fong and Rosina DeLuca have been awarded the D.S.C.

Sgt. Alice Raczkowsky and 2nd Lieutenant Mary Collumb of the Marines are in town on a ten day furlough as are First Lieut. Josephine Trembick and Sgt. Madeline Waer.

HOLLYWOOD AND BROADWAY

By RUTH METZGER

Fred Charletta now currently starring in "Arsenic and Oh! My Face!" has been cast in the lead of a new version of "Scarface"!!!

Bill Milbrodt and Ed Stanulis known, in these circles as the "wolf men," are co-starring in a new girlie show opening on Broadway known as "Kopper Kapers." Handling the comedy part in this show we have "slowburn" Konopka and Ed "corn" Grazul.

Featured this week in the Glitter Theatre are the three "Mondrew Sister," alias Stella Grynko, Irene Glovan and Betty Kaiser, who introduced Eleanor Kaslo's new song, "Who Mixed the Cheese in the Moon? Did You?" Also starred in the same program is Marion Sterople, famous interpreter of Hawaiian dances.

Opening soon at the "Orange Room" at Nedick's, we have Frank Leite, No. 1 drummer and his orchestra, featuring "Bing" Buchwald and Rose Tinessa, vocalists, and Adele Liptak at the piano.

A new comer to the show world is Fred "Tops" Horvath who succeeds Fred Astaire as the smoothest dancer yours truly has ever seen.

"Command-dears," a recent musical starring that new comedy team Loretta Rubel and Anne Lewandowski, popularly known as "Cheese-n-Crackers," continues its very successful run on Broadway at the "Kingdom Theatre."

To go for a moment to the classics—the opening performance of "The Valhyrie" at the Metropolitan Opera House tomorrow night presents such distinguished artists as Henry Pietras portraying Sigmund, Helen Pachiura in the role of Brunhilde, George Pagila as Woton, Doris Weathers as Seglind, Sophie Knott as Fricha, and Edward McGrath as Hoonding.

Tina Crisafulli, Mary Lonergan and Edwin Baniar are cast as the eternal triangle in the new motion picture "The Sun Is Up."

Hilda Sloan has made a name for herself in musical circles—as the hottest canary this side of Harlem! She is accompanied by Sophie Dadenas who has given up her mandolin for a sizzling trumpet.

Steve Smega, Ruth Bauman and Frank Wasilak are starred in that new production—"Road to Kalamazoo," directed by Vickie Tremarco.

SPORTS LINE-UP

YANKS AND CARDS IN FOUR PLAYER SWAP

Yesterday President George Martin of the Yanks announced the completion of a four player deal. Sending Satzger and Ciarrocca to the Cards in return for Wozniak and Kwasek.

Tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden, Midge Domanski, coming welterweight sensation, meets Fred "Wizard" Bortnick for the welterweight diadem. The supporting eight round bout features "Slugger" Schuler and "Ripper" D'Lugosz.

This reporter goes on the limit in predicting that Bob Deptula, Green Tree Pickers; Joe Scotti, Goping Ogres; Mickey Petro, Oregon Trailers (usually trailing) are sure fire candidates to be picked on the all pro-football team.

Race-o-gram of the week:

Frank Slater's "Paula-Lulu" is a definite starter in the Butcher's Handicap.

At the WIC4A Elizabeth Sinkez defeated Esperance Val in the archery meet, while Maud Genung captured the 100 yd. breast stroke and low board titles.

Among the leading women racqueteers Josephine Strelecki is the brightest to rise to prominence in the last year.

At the L. G. Etta "Strangler" Rubin vs. Dorothy "The Angel" Rocco.

Loretta Bryazylcyk and her "Blue Bowlers" are meeting Doris Vasquez and her "Working Girls Bowling Team" on the 29th of this month. This contest will decide the state champions.

AVOID "The Road to Anywhere"

THOSE WHO CHOOSE SUCH A COURSE, THUS PERMITTING THE FUTURE TO TAKE CARE OF ITSELF, MAKE A MAJOR MISTAKE.

AIMLESS WANDERING IS NOT FOR MODERN YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN, WHO MUST PREPARE THEMSELVES FOR THE SKILLS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF A CHOSEN CAREER IF THEY ARE TO MEET STERN COMPETITION.

FIX YOUR PURPOSE AND FOLLOW IT WITH DETERMINATION. THEN YOU WILL BE TRAVELLING—

Your Photograph

is a permanent record of you---today

A photograph of you today will be in years to come a priceless possession of your family and friends. Just as your graduation picture marks one important milestone for your loved ones, so will other pictures record other important events in your career. Get the habit of having your picture taken often.
